NARRATIVE: On February 1, 2012 at 4:34 pm, the Medford Township Police and EMS responded to Overlook Court for a report of a crash involving a go-cart with injuries. Arriving units located a 13 year old male with a fractured right arm and he was transported to Virtua Hospital (Voorhees) by Medford EMS for evaluation. Investigation revealed the go-cart was being operated on the roadway by another 13 year old male when it overturned causing it to land on its passenger side where the juvenile who was injured was seated. The driver of the go-cart was not injured and was turned over to his parents on scene. The investigation into the crash is ongoing.
